BAY ST. LOUIS, MISS., FRIDAY, NOVEMBER 5, 1943

VOL. 52 — No. 45

At a called meeting of Camp and Hospital Council of the American Red Cross held at Gulfport Field this week, a discussion was held on plans for the Thanksgiving, Christmas and New Year's days entertainment for the soldiers in the hospital wards at Gulfport Field.

Representatives of the Hancock Chapter of American Red Cross present volunteered to provide 650 Christmas stockings for the boys, and also to have the Junior Red Cross Chapter of this county make 400 nut cups and 400 favors for the soldiers trays on these holidays. All of this will be a splendid contribution towards boosting the morale of boys and many permanently maimed by the ravages of war spending Christmas in hospitals many miles away from home.

An urgent appeal was made at this meeting for Christmas tree ornaments which are no longer available in the stores, and a suggestion that each family donate two of their best ornaments which will fill the needs of decorating trees for the hospital wards and day rooms at the camp. This suggestion was unanimously approved and everyone is urged to donate Christmas tree ornaments for this excellent cause.

Two beautiful afghans were brought over to Gulfport Field for use by the convalescents there which were made by the St. Joseph Academy Junior Red Cross Chapter and by the Bay High School Junior Red Cross Chapter which were greatly admired and appreciated by everyone attending the meeting.

Remember, volunteers for Red Cross work in the Production Department are always needed.

Also, ladies, staff workers are always needed in the Red Cross office. So, make it a point to save a few hours in your busy schedule of work for your Red Cross work and call Mrs. Louis Maumus.

The couple have many friends here who are wishing them lots of joy and happiness along life's way. The bride is the niece of Mrs. Leo Praetorius of this city and has visited here often.

NATIONAL WAR FUND LAGGING

Quota Must Be Raised By November 5th—Let's Get The $3400.00

Wake up patriotic Americans! The National War Fund for this county is lagging. It is because you have not responded to this appeal. Do you want it said of you that if you had given the $3400.00 "would have been reached? The Block Leaders of the Civilian Defense are calling at every home in the city and county. If you happened not to be home when you were called upon don't wait for a second call but send or bring your contribution to the Civilian Defense Office.

Listen! QUOTA MUST BE REACHED BY NOVEMBER 5. No money collected after midnight of that date will be credited on the quota. That can't happen here. This county has never failed to make its quota and it must be made, it must be made now, it must be made 100 percent, and it is your job as well as the chairman, subchairman, block leaders and committees to see that the amount asked for is forthcoming. Do your part and encourage your neighbor to do his.

When your son comes home and says "Dad and Mother, the money you helped raise for the NWF certainly helped me and many of my buddies" what are you going to say? Can you look him in the face and say "Yes, son, I gave to the limit." How will you feel if you can't. AND THIS MEANS YOU.

Lowell says "Not what we give but what we share" and when you consider that the money collected in the NWF goes to the uniformed forces through 17 different channels you know that it reaches those in need. Then, too, it reaches every country which has suffered because of the war. So give now without further delay.

This is not a bond drive. When you buy bonds you are investing your money and your money will be returned to you with interest. But this is an appeal for you to give to help those who are fighting for you, for me, for our country. The drive is not moving fast. The collections are coming in slowly. Let's speed up and get the $3400.00 before November 5. Remember the deadline is November 5. "All that you hold in your dead cold hand, is what you have given away."

JOHNSON SHAW ELECTED

Succeeds His Father As Supervisor Beat Three—Appointed For Unexpired Term.

On Tuesday, the voters of Beat Three in Hancock County elected Johnson S. Shaw as Supervisor of Beat Three, to succeed his late father, Mr. Calvin Shaw, who had been nominated for the coming term at the August Primaries.

Mr. Shaw died on October 22nd, and the time having expired for any candidate to qualify by petition at that time; under section 6233 of the Mississippi Code of 1930, the voters of Beat Three proceeded to write in the names of the candidates of their choice. In this election Johnson Shaw received 272 votes, Roy Koenenn received 85, and M. A. Harriel received 1 vote.

The election commissioners have met and have certified the election of Mr. Shaw as the successor to his father. On Wednesday morning the Board of Supervisors, named Mr. Shaw to fill the unexpired term of his father, he immediately filed his bond, took his oath of office and qualified as Supervisor for Beat Three.

He is well known throughout the county and the people of his district hold him in very high esteem, which is attested by the fact that he was elected to Supervise Beat Three by the largest majority that anyone has ever received in this district.

PASSES EXAMINATION

AUSTIN BAXTER, A. M. M. 2[C]
Austin Baxter has just passed his examination for A. M. M. 2[C]. He is now at Corpus Christi, Texas.

Chas. B. Murphy, Jr. Commissioned as Ensign In Naval Air Corps

President of the Board of Supervisors and Mrs. Chas. B. Murphy of Logtown have recently returned from Corpus Christi, Texas, where they visited their son, Charles, Jr., just prior to his graduation from the Naval Air Training Center at Corpus Christi.

Charles enlisted in July of 1942 as a Naval Air Cadet and was assigned to the University of Mississippi for his Primary Training and was then transferred to Louisiana State University for his Secondary Training. He took his preflight at Athens, Georgia, and his primary training at Norman, Oklahoma, and from there he was transferred to the Naval Air Training Center at Corpus Christi, Texas, and from which place he was graduated on October 27th as a Naval Air Pilot and was Commissioned as Ensign in the United States Naval Reserve. He has been assigned to duty at Jacksonville, Florida with the Naval Air Corps.

Charles is a graduate of Bay High School Class of 1941. In 1940 he attended Citizens Military Training Corps, and immediately prior to the time he entered Service, he was a student at Pearl River Junior College and was a member of the Reserve Officers Training Corps.

The many friends that Charles has throughout Hancock County are, indeed, very happy to know that he has attained his goal, and sincerely hope that his success will continue.

He is an outstanding young man, quiet and unassuming, and his parents have every reason to feel proud of his accomplishments.

Immediately following his graduation he visited his home for a couple of days prior to reporting for duty at Jacksonville; this being the first time that he has had leave since his entry into service.

GENERAL ELECTION RETURNS

Mundell Bush Elected Highway Commissioner—Johnson Shaw Elected Supervisor Beat Three

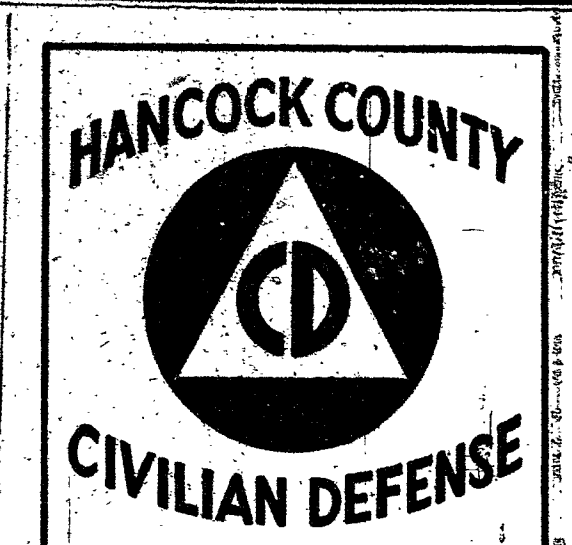

On Tuesday, November 2nd, the voters of the State of Mississippi in a very light vote elected to office all of the Democratic Nominees who were nominated in the August Primaries.

The only contest in the State and District offices was in the race for Highway Commissioner where five candidates were entered for the vacancy caused by the death of the late Honorable Hiram Patterson. According to unofficial returns, it appears that Mundell Bush who is at present serving as Highway Commissioner for the Southern District under appointment by Governor Johnson has been elected for the full term. The Civilian Defense Office which since its organization has been installed in the office of the Board of Supervisors has moved upstairs to the second floor and is occupying the office just opposite the Red Cross office.

This adjustment was made because it became necessary for the county board to have their office. The OCD officials have expressed their appreciation for the use of the room for this length of time.

The Civilian Defense Air Raid Wardens and auxiliary police were stepping high in the parade on Monday of last week because the 60 new helmets have arrived. They are as proud as the small boys with a new hat.

If they don't tip their hat to you it isn't because they lack a knowledge of the courtesy due you—the helmets' weight quit a lot of pounds.

The block leaders of the Civilian Defense living up to their reputation have gone after $3400 and they are going to get it.

They are go-getters and they are going to put this drive over in a big way so lend them a helping hand by giving where and when it is asked of you.

WAR RATION BOARD COLUMN

The Office of Price Administration has simplified its rationing regulations so that a farmer may now be eligible to consume home-slaughtered meat without giving up ration points.

In a joint announcement with OPA, the War Food Administration has authorized such individuals to slaughter "for home consumption" without a permit if they meet the OPA requirements.

Under the revisions, a person may slaughter and consume meat at home without giving up ration points if he can qualify on these three counts:

1. If a farmer has raised the livestock from birth;
2. If he fed it for a period of 60 days immediately before slaughter.

3. If the weight increased at least 35 percent between the time he acquired it and the time of slaughter.

In all cases, raising the livestock must take place on a farm or other place where the livestock producer operates. In addition, he must have resided more than six months of each year on the farm and must have given personal attention to raising the livestock for at least one-third of the time during that period.

Farmers or others who raise livestock and meet the requirements may serve the meat, point-free, to those who eat at his table, including farm workers.

We are again reminding the housewife and the grocer that the Office Price Administration regulations do not permit retailers to accept any loose Food Rationing Stamps except one point Brown Stamps used in making change in buying meats and fats. Stamps may be used by consumers only if torn out of their War Ration Book in the presence of the person who is selling or transferring the foods. Stamps must be given up at the time the foods are purchased.

The club will raffle a $25 war bond. This is in charge of Mrs. Bernard Balze.

Plans were completed for a card party to be given on November 18 at the S. J. A. gymnasium. For further information call Mrs. John A. Green, Jr. Phone 126.

CALL FOR SMALL MIRRORS

There is a call for small mirrors such as are put in ladies purses. These are put in the life belts and sent with the boys overseas. They are the means of men on boats and rafts spotting planes. Men have died because they could not locate planes. One mirror can save 35 lives. Call Mrs. Pate if you have mirrors. She sent 100 last week.

"PRAÑKS AND THOUGHTLESSNESS"

THE costly pranks and thoughtlessness of the unconscious saboteur cost the war effort substantial sums every day in material destruction, in wasted manpower and in delayed production, according to J. Edgar Hoover, Director of the Federal Bureau of Investigation.

Mr. Hoover says that thus far not a single sabotage crime can be traced to foreign origin and the sabotage has been held "far below the level which might reasonably have been expected under the circumstances of this war."

The FBI chief cited instances of "aggravated horseplay and practical joking" which have delayed war production. Of 11,534 cases of reported sabotage less than ten per cent yielded evidence of a technical crime. Some 485 persons have been convicted but in only a handful of these cases was there a wilful intent to damage government property or to impede the war effort.

In a majority of instances, says Mr. Hoover, the offenders were motivated by a personal anger or spite toward a superior, by the desire for notoriety, malicious mischief or some similar impulse.

Instances cited by the FBI head included the loss of 1,000 manhours of labor through the jamming of electrical control, which investigation revealed, was the work of an employee "getting even" with other workers who had hidden his hammer on numerous occasions. At another plant, pieces of wire discovered in the gears were found, upon investigation, to have been caused by workers throwing the metal objects at each other.

We think the nation can take just pride in the behavior of the people in the present emergency. Despite the presence of millions of foreign-born, there have been no major acts of sabotage. This is a splendid record, and we suspect that the FBI through, its efficiency, has played a considerable role in preventing warplant damage.

THE Junior Red Cross will stage its enrollment campaign during the first half of November and it is hoped that more than 17,000,000 young Americans will become members of this branch of the great organization of mercy.

Officials remind us that since Pearl Harbor the youthful workers have made 12,000,000 comfort and recreational articles for the armed forces. They have sent 100,000 gift boxes to the children of Allied nations, collected 50,000 tons of salvageable material and made more than 300,000 Christmas menu covers for the U. S. Navy.

The purpose of the Junior Red Cross, we suppose, is to acquaint the young members with the purpose of the parent organization and to give them an opportunity to participate in the excellent undertaking of doing something for others in need.

We hope that the young people of Hancock County will respond readily to the Junior Red Cross enrollment and that we will have many more members in 1943 than we have ever had before.

EISENHOWER PRAISES INFANTRY

IT IS entirely natural for the fighting man to believe that the branch of the service in which he serves is the most important and that it is doing the greater part of the work of winning the war.

Much attention has been centered upon the aerial arm. The Navy has come in for some credit and the submarines have been recently praised by the President for their destruction of Japanese ships.

For many months the tank brigades were considered to be the main fighting arm of ground forces, but a little later, artillery came into its own and received generous acknowledgement.

Now comes Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower, boss of the forces in the Mediterranean theatre, to pat on the back the "indispensable members of the 'air-ground-naval-team'—the infantryman who plugs along on the ground.

WHAT DR. GOEBBELS LIKES

THE one thing that Dr. Goebbels likes to see us do," says John J. Llewellyn, British representative in this country, is to go out and scream from the housetops about the "many little imperfections that we may see in ourselves or other of our allies."

This states the facts exactly. The next time you hear a fellow citizen finding fault about the course of the war, either at home or abroad, you might remember that Germany's sole chance to avoid complete defeat is to provoke disunity among the United Nations or create dissatisfaction at home.

Whether the chronic complainers do so intentionally, or not, they play the German game, and it's nasty business, not to be appreciated by Americans whose loved ones are risking their lives.

Farmers Urged To Comb Farms For Scrap

War Food Administrator Marvin Jones today urged all farmers to comb their farms for all possible scrap and pointed out that new steel would be available in direct proportion to the amount of scrap collected by the Victory Scrap Book Campaign.

"If we are to keep our steel mills operating at capacity, turning out steel for ships, tanks, planes and guns, as well as farm machinery, it will be necessary to have vast amounts of scrap."

Next to industry the greatest source of heavy scrap is the American farm.

"American farmers are doing the greatest food production job in history. However, if we are to insure ample steel for wartime production, millions of tons of scrap iron and steel must come from our farms in the next six weeks.

Bread Cast Upon the Waters

Yes, those men in the barge are throwing food overboard! It's good food, too, and the men aren't crazy. This is just the emergency way of landing supplies on harborless shores.

The paperboard containers are waterproof. They are fished out of the surf and carried up on the beach—their contents as perfect as when they left far-off America.

Here is just one of the many new uses that have been developed for pulpwood products—another reason why pulpwood has joined rubber and tin on the scarcity list. But of pulpwood we have an ample supply—in the wood. The only problem is to get it cut.

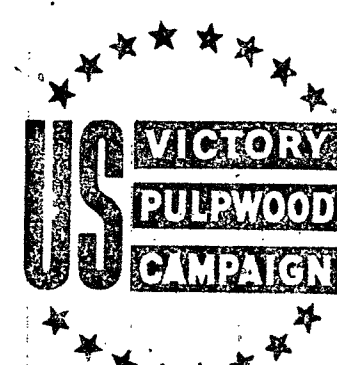

This mill, like almost every other pulp mill in the country, is short of wood. We need all we can get. If you can cut pulpwood for us, do it quickly—there is no way you could help more effectively in keeping a stream of supplies flowing to our men overseas.

A. & G. THEATRE SUNDAY AND MONDAY "THE FALLEN SPARROW"

John Garfield, Maureen O'Hara Co-starring in Thrill-Drama of Hard-Boiled Lovemaking Spy Intrigue

"The Fallen Sparrow" an action-packed and suspenseful big spy-mystery movie based on the best-seller of the same name by Dorothy B. Hughes, brings Maureen O'Hara and John Garfield together for the first time in co-starring roles. Their parts are particularly suited to their outstanding talents.

Garfield has played some of the screen's greatest "hard guy" roles, but he was never tougher nor more realistic than as the young American adventurer who returns from civil war, prison and torture in Spain to match wits with Axis agents in his own New York City and in the midst of his circle of well-to-do friends. His love-making to three beautiful women particularly strikes a new note.

Not even as a villain has he or any other screen smoothie succeeded in putting over such hard-boiled, ruthless romancing, a quality which makes his love affairs in the picture with Miss O'Hara, Martha O'Driscoll and Patricia Morison strikingly different.

This is better understood when it is explained that he suspects all three women of being agents of his deadly foes. The latter have despaired of torturing him until he would reveal a secret the fascists want, and which they are now trying to obtain by subtler means. He is out to avenge not only his own wrongs, but the murder of a friend at enemy agents' hands.

In New York he faces unseen peril, for his foes are hiding among the horde of refugees that have been taken to the bosom of his acquaintance. They all seem sinister at first, but gradually his detective work and turning of the feminine agents to help, willingly or unwittingly, in his own cause reveals the real agents and begins to make their plot against him clear.

Other fine acting jobs are turned in by Hugh Beaumont, John Banner and a large cast of character artists.

ORTTE THEATRE SUNDAY AND MONDAY "WHITE SAVAGE"

Maria Montez, Jon Hall, Sabu Co-Starring in Movie

Vivid, adventurous entertainment is heralded in the presentation of "White Savage," one of Universal's major productions which comes Nov. 7-8 to the Ortte Theatre. Filmed in Technicolor, the new picture reunites Maria Montez, Jon Hall and Sabu, the sensational starring trio of "Arabian Nights."

A South Seas island paradise is the locale of the story, a romantic action tale dealing with plights of an amorous shark hunter who loves the fascinating native princess. Miss Montez appears as the princess while Hall portrays the fisherman. Sabu is seen in the role of the latter's assistant.

A conspiracy to obtain control of the island furnishes suspense and excitement and one of the film's spectacular highlights is a huge native festival. A highly dramatic climax is said to be thrillingly enacted while an earthquake lays waste the picturesque structures of a tropical settlement.

Scenes are effective Underwater swimming sequences featuring both Hall and Sabu are declared to be unusually effective. Miss Montez's costume innovation, the "sheerong" announced as a "gasp-provoking" variation of the famous sarong, is certain to be one of the production's memorable attributes, studio notices say.
